

Spring Term 2020 Newsletter 3

Our Commando Joe launch got off to a great start on Wednesday. A secret box of equipment arrived in school over half term and was put to good use in the first of many missions. The children were very enthusiastic and are looking forward to completing many more.

Our fundraising for the 25 Alive Hospice Care campaign is coming to an end we will announce a final total next week. Thank you to everyone who has supported us with this.

Reception and Nursery will be selling their decorated jam jars for £1.00 on Monday.

On Friday March 6th, we will be celebrating world book day with different reading activities in school. Please could everyone bring a favourite book to read and a book they have already read to swap with another family. This is a non-uniform day – dress as a Book Character if you would like to.

On Friday March 27th, there will be coffee and cake for parents from 2.15pm and an Easter Egg competition for the children, run by the PTA. Further details will follow.

Our Rugby after school continues on a Monday for KS2 and Horrid Henry club for KS1 on a Tuesday.

Our league football matches start soon – the children in KS2 who have volunteered to join the football team will have a letter shortly.

The Summer Fair will take place in Bamburgh on Sunday 7th June and we will be asking for raffle donations, tombola prizes, baking etc., plus the commitment of a few hours of your time. Please put this date in your diaries. Raffle donations/tombola prizes can be sent in from next week.

We welcome Kate Brotherton – Annie-Rose's mum in Early Years, who has volunteered to take over as Chair of the PTA. The current PTA committee, as mentioned before, would like to resign and allow new parents to move into their roles. No one has come forward to volunteer for the role of Treasurer or Secretary so for the foreseeable future those roles will be taken back into school. The Summer Fair will continue to run as a separate event under the umbrella of the PTA in conjunction with the school.

A PTA meeting will be held on Thursday 12th March at 3.15pm to formalise these changes.

By virtue of having a child in school, every parent is a part of the PTA and we hope that as many of you as possible will be able to attend.
